

deaf education through listening and talking

How DELTA helps families:

- Regular events and workshops on the natural aural approach including our annual summer school
- Telephone and email advice and support from our team of professionals
- Closed Facebook group for parents and DELTA members
- A range of literature with information and advice
- Membership scheme to keep in touch and support our work

How DELTA supports professionals:

- Specialist training courses on the natural aural approach
- Telephone and email advice and support from our team of professionals
- A range of literature and DVDs

For more information please visit our website: www.deafeducation.org.uk or email enquiries@deafeducation.org.uk

Registered charity number: 1115603
Company number 5698173

DELTA is a charity and relies solely on grants, donations and fundraising activities for its income.

